The Ninth Annual Fair of the Ohio Agricultural Society, at Sandusky, is now only into spoken of as among the things that have probeen. The Cattle exhibition is said to have been the finest ever presented at any State Fair. The variety of stock was large, and included some of the most valuable world. Among them we noticed two from Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., our town, owned by Dr. Rawson and Mr. Physician Extraordinary to the Quera.

At Mechanics' Hall we observed among many other valuable inventions, a selfventilating Refrigerator, manufactured by McGer & HAVNES of Fremont, and for which they were awarded a Silver Medal. In Fine Art Hall there were exhibitions of Painting, Penmanship, with all the family of types and graphs whose christian names are too numerous and too jaw-breaking to mention. Some specimens of sea. NEW weed prepared by Ossian Dodge, particularly attracted our attention as the finest and most beautiful we have ever seen.

Floral Hall reminded us of the Fairy land we read of, where summer scatters glistened, but not in the 'crown of autumn!' If 'flowers are the alphabet of angels,' the 'fragrance of flowers' must be 'incense to Hot Coffee, Ham and Eggs, Beef Steak, or Heaven, but though we seemed almost out of our sphere in that enchanting place, reading such language, and inhaling such incense, still we had just enough mortal left m us to bid farewell to those delightful scenes and enter upon the more practical ones at Dining Hall. To come from the sublime to the ridiculous, this change is all that is necessary to be done. The hurry, bustle, gormandizing here reminds one, that "all is vanity below the sun."

On Friday we witnessed the grand procossion of premium cattle, and the equestrian exhibitition of the ladies. There were some fine riders, and among the best, we noticed Miss Seaman from our town, whom we of course placed at the head of the list. Nothing seemed to mar the pleasure of the week, and this State Fair will long live in our memory. The receipts we learn were about $14,500. J. E. K. J. E. K.
